Date: 14 September 2025

This website is operated by the Association of Electro Homeopathy & Paramedical Education (AEHEUP). All information, courses, training programmes, news, notices, and content available on this website are published solely for educational, training, and public awareness purposes.

The Electro Homeopathy, Paramedical, and CMS & ED training programmes conducted by AEHEUP are limited to skill-based training, primary health awareness, first aid, and community health support only. These programmes are not equivalent to MBBS, BAMS, BHMS, BDS, or any other medical degree or registration recognized by the Government of India.

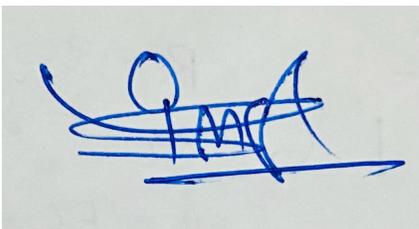

Electro Homeopathy is not a system of medicine recognized by the Government of India. No certificate issued by this website or the Association authorizes the holder to practice as a Doctor, Registered Medical Practitioner, Medical Officer, or to provide treatment under any recognized system of medicine.

Certificate holders are not permitted to diagnose diseases, prescribe medicines, perform surgeries, or represent themselves as “Doctor”. Their role is strictly limited to health education, first aid, preventive health awareness, and referral of patients to registered medical practitioners or government health institutions.

The information available on this website should not be considered medical advice. For any illness, emergency, or treatment, individuals must consult only a government-recognized registered medical practitioner.

The Association, its office bearers, and management shall not be responsible or liable for any misuse, misinterpretation, or misrepresentation of any content, certificate, or information displayed on this website.

All activities related to this website are subject to the applicable laws of India and the directions/orders of competent authorities and Hon'ble Courts.
